All general education classes may be taken prior to admission into the nursing program.

See a nursing advisor for assistance with alternate sequencing of general education courses for the UW BSN Transfer.

Most general education courses are also offered in the summer. See a nursing advisor for details.

Progression to the fourth year of the ReNEW curriculum at the University of Wyoming requires students to have graduated with an Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) from a Wyoming ReNEW community college.

In addition students must meet one of the following two criteria:

- RN license and a nursing GPA of 2.5 OR
- No RN license and a nursing GPA of 3.0
