II.B.5

Co-curricular Opportunities for Students' Engagement With Each Other, The Campus, and Broader Community

Standards:
Programs leverage partnerships and resources to establish co-curricular opportunities for students' engagement with each other, the campus community, and the broader community through activities such as service learning, internships, clinicals, study abroad, and non-traditional work-based opportunities (e.g., job shadowing).

Guideline:
a) Describe how the program encourages student engagement in relevant opportunities, such as service learning, internships, clinicals, study abroad, and non-traditional work-based opportunities (e.g., job shadowing) that strengthen student learning and development.

Judgment
