Dear Dr. Schaffer

My name is Shonna Wright. I currently hold the position of commander at The American Legion Post 6 in Cheyenne. I am writing to relay my gratitude to one of your employees and 4 of your students.

Post 6 is constantly striving to improve the appearance of our facilities. In our ballroom, we have a military mural that was painted several years ago. Next to this mural we had a section of wall that had been recently patched and painted white. Our Executive Board made the decision to add a new mural, using this section. Unfortunately, due to financial reasons, we were unable to hire an artist.

LCCC Art Instructor, Ron Medina, was contacted approximately 5 weeks prior to Veterans Day. We inquired if he had any art students who might freely volunteer their time, energy, and skills towards painting a military mural for Post 6. He advised us he would contact his students and propose the task. Please thank Mr. Medina for his consideration and professionalism with helping our military organization.

We were pleasantly surprised when 4 of your students: Autumn Van Dyke; Kyla Bingham; Lindsey Hand; and Caroline Pringselflessly offered to tackle the project. We explained that we hoped they could complete the mural before Veterans Day. This would help commemorate and honor our members, as well as all veterans, living and deceased. The students sprang into action, completing a proposal of how the mural would look. They quickly made any changes we requested. And then, they completed the mural before Veterans Day. We have had several compliments on the work of art.

Please convey to these students our extreme gratitude and friendship. They are an example of what makes America great and they epitomize the hard work, dedication, and generosity that LCCC promotes. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Shonna Wright
The American Legion
Post 6 Commander
