

Laramie County Community College
Spring 2015, May 11-15, 2015
Final Examination Schedule

The final examination period is intended to assist students and instructors by providing two-hour blocks of time for final examinations. The final exam period is not intended for introduction of new material. Instructors are encourage to use the final exam period in accordance with LCCC Procedure 6340, Final Course Examinations, and although final exams are not mandated, faculty are required to meet with their classes during the designated final exam period. The final exam days are contracted days for full-time faculty. For classes that do not fit any of the designated time slots, instructors should schedule their finals in the open times on the final day of finals and/or consult their dean.
