

Faculty Qualifications Policy	Policy Number	2.7
	Effective Date	May 22, 2012

1.0 POLICY & PURPOSE

The Board of Trustees of Laramie County Community College (LCCC) is committed to providing the highest quality of educational instruction to the College’s students. The Board of Trustees expect all faculty members at LCCC are appropriately credentialed for the discipline and subject matter they teach, while also meeting the criteria and assumed practices as required by the College’s accrediting agency. The Board’s expectations, in accordance with accreditation requirements, provide that this policy apply to all of the College’s faculty, including those in dual and concurrent enrollment, contractual, and consortia programs. The President shall be responsible for implementing administrative procedures to ensure faculty members are appropriately credentialed.
