There are scholarships for the bookstore to make it easier for students. Children's Discovery Center- squish mellows are being sold to raise money for the new playground. Reach out anytime for swag, raffles, etc. Small store but we try to hit every demographic for everyone to have something. The average price is $28.22 for the items in the store. If it's digital and unopened then yes it be refunded but there are 2-week free trials for most digital material. Access codes for the math books are expensive. It is something that we can't fix for the online access code. We are doing a pilot that is similar course fee, and the publishers are happy because they are getting the full payment. Seasonal student employment pay is low. $10 an hr. you get discounts but quick room for advancement. Spread the word about the bookstore and what they are doing. An email that shows what the price will be for supplies, so they don't have to worry about setting it up separately. Maybe OER can help inform? Our school is very low above the national average.
